

DEWEY IS MARRIED

Mrs. Hazen and the Admiral Made One at 9:30 This Morning.

WEDDING IS PRIVATE

Dispensation Given by Cardinal Gibbons Allowing the Ceremony in Church.

ANY CHILDREN BORN MUST BE REARED AS CATHOLICS.

Magnificent Wedding Gown of the Lovely Bride Delights the Eyes of the Hero of Manila—Dewey Procures the Civil Licences and Deposits That in Both Cases There Was a Former Marriage—Home of the Couple, Given to Dewey by a Grateful Public, Will be Sumptuously Furnished.

Washington, Nov. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—Admiral Dewey

MRS. GEORGE DEWEY. Mrs. Hazen were married at 9:30 o'clock this morning.

Wedding in St. Paul's Church. The wedding took place in St. Paul's Catholic church, Father Mackin officiating.

After the ceremony the Admiral and his wife drove to the residence of Mrs. Washington McLean. The admiral helped his wife out of the carriage and stepped into the hall with her for a few minutes, afterwards re-entering the carriage and driving away. Mrs. Washington McLean and her other daughter, Mrs. Ludlow, drove up to the residence a few minutes later.

At eleven o'clock Dewey returned to the bride's residence and partook of a quiet wedding breakfast. The only witnesses to the marriage ceremony were Mrs. Dewey's mother and sister and Dewey's secretary, Lieut. Caldwell. The celebration of the nuptials at St. Paul's church instead of at Mrs. McLean's home was a great surprise, but it was evidently done to throw the curious public off the track.

Depart for New York. Admiral and Mrs. Dewey left this afternoon for New York. The did not travel in a special car, but occupied seats in a drawing room car. There was no demonstration at the depot, only the gate keepers and a few others recognizing the hero of Manila as he hurriedly passed through the gate with his bride.

Dispensation Necessary. Dispensation is necessary for a Roman Catholic to wed a non-Catholic, and it requires some little time to obtain this indulgence. The application for such indulgence was made by Mrs. Hazen to Father Foley of St. Paul's yesterday afternoon. This morning the priest arrived from Baltimore with the coveted dispensation, and it was a night's labor to get it ready. This document is written in Latin, setting forth that, for good and sufficient reasons, Mildred McLean Hazen, a member of the Catholic faith is allowed to be united in the bonds of holy matrimony with George Dewey, a non-believer in the faith.

Children Must Be Reared Catholic. It states that as prescribed by the sixth precept of the Catholic church, the pastor of the church where Mildred McLean Hazen is registered has exacted of George Dewey the solemn promise that any children born of the union shall be reared in the holy Catholic religion, and that George Dewey has likewise promised not to interfere with Mildred McLean Hazen in matters pertaining to religion, nor to place obstacles in the practice thereof. The document is signed by Rev. O. F. Thomas, judge of the curia for matrimonial causes; Very Reverend A. L. Magnien, S. S., defender for matrimonial causes, and Rev. William A. Reardon, secretary for the curia. It bears the great seal of the archbishopric, with the private seal of the cardinal just beneath. Wedding Gown Magnificent.

Some of Mrs. Hazen's intimates who have had the privilege of seeing the trousseau finery say that a brocade of ashes of roses is the handsomest and most becoming gown in the outfit. She arrayed herself in this frock for the admiral's benefit just before leaving New York, and it is said that the groom-elect was delighted. This gown was therefore the wedding gown of the bride. It is trimmed in rare lace, a cascade edging on one side of a panel on the left of the skirt and a soft ruffle around the yoke. An overskirt effect over a demitrain is formed of lace.

Admiral Gets the License. The license authorizing Admiral George Dewey to wed Mrs. Mildred M. Hazen was issued yesterday by the clerk of the supreme court of the District of Columbia. The application for the license was made by Lieutenant Harry H. Caldwell, U. S. N., Admiral Dewey's secretary, in person. The information furnished the clerk and set forth in the license is that Admiral Dewey is sixty-one years of age, and the bride-to-be is forty-three; that both are citizens of the United States, and that in the case of each party there was one former marriage. To these statements Lieutenant Caldwell was required to take path.

Home of the Couple. Some of Mrs. Hazen's furniture was moved into the Dewey home, 1747 Rhode Island avenue, this afternoon. A number of costly rugs and some bric-a-brac were given room in the parlor suite. Those who know Mrs. Hazen's fastidious taste predict that the house will be entirely renovated before she takes possession. The furnishings at present are, perhaps, fitting for a single man of quiet tastes, but a leader of society, as the bride of Admiral Dewey will undoubtedly be, will need more elaborate surroundings.

KRUGER KEEPS ON PLACIDLY SMOKING. Boers Accused of Violating the Rights of a Flag of Truce—Colesburg Has Not Been Evacuated by the British—Latest News From Gen. White.

WAR AND RUMORS OF WAR DO NOT DISTURB HIM AT ALL.

Cape Town, Nov. 9.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—Pretoria advises say that Kruger is not disturbed by any war news. He is usually found sitting on his stoop, placidly smoking. Some of the wounded Gordon Highlanders from the battle of Elandsburg have arrived here from Durban. They say they were shot at by the Boers, after the latter had shown four flags of truce and the British bugler had sounded "cease firing."

A Queenstown, Cape Colony, message says that Colesburg, on the Port Elizabeth railroad, just south of Orange river, has not been occupied by the Boers as at first reported. The Orange Free State troops evidently intend to act entirely on the defensive.

London, Nov. 9.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—Gen. White in a message from Ladysmith by pigeon on Nov. 5, reports the list of wounded in Dundee battle which was sent him by the Boers. White adds that the Boers discontinued the bombardment on Saturday and Sunday up to the time the message was sent. He expected a recommencement of the bombardment soon.

German Officers Warned. Berlin, Nov. 9.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—The military cabinet by order of the Kaiser has directed the district generals to not permit German officers whether in active service or on furlough to take part in the South African campaign or to do anything tending to violate German's strict neutrality.

Minister Paucotote is Hopeful. New York, Nov. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—Lord Julian Paucotote, British ambassador to the United States, and Andrew Carnegie arrived from Europe today. The former says the war with the Boers is approved throughout Great Britain and predicts that when Buller arrives to relieve White, the situation will clear up at once. Carnegie denounces the war and says it is on a par "with our attack on the Filipinos." Carnegie denies that he has become a British subject.

THREE FUNERALS HELD TODAY

Services Over the Remains of the Late Harry F. Keller This Afternoon. Funeral services over the late Harry F. Keller were held from the family residence, 251 South Jackson street, this afternoon at half past two o'clock. Rev. Robert C. Denison officiated and the interment was in Oak Hill cemetery. The funerals of Mrs. Edward Bray and little Thomas Mair also took place today.

M'KINLEY AND BRYAN AGAIN

Results of Elections Seem to Indicate the Old Ticket.

PRESIDENT SATISFIED

Administration Considers it an Endorsement of its Foreign Policy.

Extreme Hatred of Hanna Develops in Ohio—Democrats Also Find Comfort in the Results—Their 1900 Platform Promises to be Anti-Trust and Anti-Imperialism With Free Silver on the Side—Milwaukee and Chicago Politicians View the Results Much the Same as They Do in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—There is great enthusiasm in administration circles over the general result of the elections. Those near the president regard the vote of Tuesday as a hearty endorsement of his policy and an emphatic rebuke of the contractors argument presented by the democrats. The republicans have carried Ohio, Iowa and Massachusetts, where the democrats made anti-expansion an issue and the democrats carried Nebraska and Maryland, each having a democratic candidate for president, neither of whom the republicans fear as a leader.

Attorney General Griggs thinks the democratic victory in Maryland is likely to give ex-Senator Gorman much prominence as a democratic leader, and Comptroller Dawes thinks Bryan's victory in Nebraska will continue him as the democratic standard-bearer.

Hanna Is Well Hated.

In studying the returns, the president's friends are forced to the conclusion that Ohio has endorsed the administration, in spite of the embarrassment of Senator Hanna, who lost his own city and county to "Golden Rule" Jones by fully 15,000 plurality.

Members of the administration who went to Ohio to speak for the republican ticket say they never anywhere encountered such hatred against a public man as they found against Mr. Hanna where ever they spoke.

Old Tickets Are Imperative

It is the almost universal opinion among politicians in Washington that the result of Tuesday's elections makes the nomination of the old tickets imperative, and that McKinley and Bryan will again test public sentiment at the polls. This outlook is quite as satisfactory to the democrats as to the republicans, and the platforms will refer to the expansion policy and trusts with free silver on the side.

The president is entirely satisfied with the situation. He regards the result of the elections as a vindication and approval of his policy and his message to congress will be written upon this assumption. He is particularly gratified by the vote in Massachusetts, where the anti expansionists have been most active and where the net gain of the republican ticket has been largest.

Will be McKinley and Bryan

Chicago, Nov. 9.—Local politicians of both parties agreed yesterday that the elections held in a dozen states Tuesday established the fact that McKinley and Bryan would be the contesting presidential nominees next year. McLean's defeat in Ohio and the report from Baltimore that ex-Senator Gorman had declared he would head the Maryland delegation to the democratic national convention for Bryan laid at rest the fears of the Bryan democrats that McLean, with the aid of Goebel and Gorman would fight Bryan for the democratic nomination.

The republican leaders claim that the big majorities in republican states are an unqualified endorsement of President McKinley's policy in the Philippines and of his whole administration. The democratic leaders insist that local questions dominated the situation to such an extent that the result is no indication of what the people will do in 1900.

Milwaukee Republicans Satisfied

Milwaukee, Nov. 9.—Republicans of Milwaukee are all pleased with the result of the elections held on Tuesday, and none more so than United States Senator J. V. Quarles. The latter yesterday expressed great satisfaction over the outcome, not only as an endorsement of the administration in Ohio, Iowa and Massachusetts in particular, but because, as he sees the handwriting on the wall, it proclaims the issues and the candidates for the presidential battle in 1900.

FORECAST OF WEATHER

Chicago, Nov. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—The forecast for Wisconsin is as follows: Fair tonight and Friday.

WHEATON'S MEN IN A FIERCE FIGHT

Filipinos in Trenches Hinder Landing of Troops in Lingayan.

CHARGED THE REBELS

Enemy Flies in All Directions Before Bayonets of Boys in Blue.

Brief but Desperate Fight—Two Americans Wounded but Filipino Loss Not Reported—Union Troops Lose No Time but Immediately Begin Their Advance Eastward—A Decisive Battle is Expected in the Philippines—American Troops in Position to Attack Aguineldo in Force.—To Push The War.

Manila, Nov. 9.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—Wheaton's men had a fierce fight soon after landing at the port in the Gulf of Lingayan. The Filipinos lay in the trenches, and met the advance of the Americans with heavy firing.

The infantry charged gallantly, routed the rebels, and drove them away after a brief but desperate fight.

GENERAL WHEATON. ed the rebels, and drove them away after a brief but desperate fight.

Two Americans were wounded. The Filipino casualties are not yet reported. When the dispatch boat left, Wheaton's men had already begun to advance eastward.

DECISIVE BATTLE IS EXPECTED

Americans Now in Position to Attack Filipinos in Force

Manila, Nov. 9.—It is expected that the big battle of the campaign against the forces of Aguineldo which is now beginning will take place at Bamban, on the Rio Parua, a little distance north of Mabalacat. It is known that strong intrenchments have been built on the north bank of this deep river and the bridge has been broken down. The town is on the railroad and in the direct line of Gen. MacArthur's advance from Mabalacat, which Gen. MacArthur now occupies, having reached that city Wednesday.

Col. Bell entered Mabalacat with his regiment, the Thirty-sixth infantry, having gone around the insurgents intrenched before Angeles. He encountered slight opposition from two companies of insurgents, which fled after a brief engagement, leaving several dead officers in the trenches. Gen. MacArthur advanced to Mabalacat with the Twelfth and Ninth infantry. The line met with no opposition, the insurgents having left their trenches in front of Angeles after Col. Bell's successful flank movement, which brought him in there.

The troops now occupying Mabalacat are the Ninth, Twelfth and Thirty-sixth infantry, two troops of cavalry and two platoons of artillery. The Seventeenth infantry is stationed east of Mabalacat on the road to Magalang. Gen. MacArthur is resting his troops preparatory to an advance on the insurgents' strong position at Bamban. The insurgents have shown considerable aggressiveness of late. A force of 300 attacked Gen. Young near Cabanatuan, but they were repulsed three times, having renewed the attack twice after the first one. Gen. Young then advanced his men to occupy Talavera, east of Tarlac.

Everything now seems in readiness for carrying out the plan of driving the insurgents out of the valley from the gulf of Lingayan south to the present line of the American forces. The situation here is now more hopeful than it has been since the capture of the Rio Grande bridge last April. All persons here join in the hope that peace is not far away.

In Manila predictions are freely made that the organized army of the insurgents will be entirely disintegrated by the general movement now beginning, and that Gens. MacArthur, Lawton and Wheaton, by their operations on three sides of the richest valley now held by Aguineldo, will scatter the insurgents to the hills as fugitives, without supplies and without hope for further organized resistance to the Americans.

OLYMPIA OUT OF COMMISSION

Cruise of the Fighting Vessel Ends at the Charleston Navy Yard. Boston, Mass., Nov. 9.—Admiral Dewey's flagship Olympia went out of commission at the Charleston navy yard yesterday afternoon. All the officers and the crew were assembled on the quarterdeck, where Captain Lamberton bade them goodbye.

Retreat was sounded while the flag was being hauled down and this ended the cruise of the famous vessel. A board of survey will now make inspection of the Olympia, and report to the navy department what repairs are necessary.

DEMISE OF MRS. MILLIGAN

Died This Afternoon at Her Home on Pleasant Street.

Mrs. Mary Milligan died this afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at the Pleasant street home of James Condon. Old age was the cause of her demise. Mrs. Milligan has resided in Janesville for a number of years coming from Green county. She remains this afternoon were taken to Dan Ryan's undertaking rooms and the interment will take place in Beloit. Three daughters reside in the Line City.

WERE MARRIED YESTERDAY

Lueck-Puttkuhn Ceremony Was Performed by Rev. J. C. Koerner

Rev. J. C. Koerner performed the ceremony yesterday that united as husband and wife Gustave Lueck and Augusta Puttkuhn. The wedding took place at the Ravine street home of the bride and was attended by a large circle of friends. Both bride and groom are residents of Janesville and are well known. The groom is employed at the Wm. Kemmerer meat market.

COMMENCING Oct. 13, the C. M. & St. P. R. will run a Pullman tourist car through to Los Angeles, Cal., without change, via the popular Midland route, leaving Chicago every Friday evening, connecting at Sacramento with a through car to San Francisco. For further information apply to agents of the C. M. & St. P. Ry.

COUNTY ASYLUM AND ALMSHOUSE

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES IS PREPARED.

This Rock County Public Institution is in a Prosperous Condition—Income Exceeds Expenses by Over $8,000—Home Physician Also Makes a Report.

The trustees of the Rock County asylum and almshouse have prepared their annual report which will be submitted to the county board at the forthcoming annual meeting. The trustees are K. Killam, S. T. Merritt and C. E. Langworthy, and they say in substance:

Financially the year has been fairly satisfactory. The total income has been $24,455.54, and the expenses $16,195.43 leaving a balance in the treasury of $8,260.11. There has been a decrease in the number of patients, owing to removals to other counties and death, which has caused a decrease in the earnings. There has also been a slight increase in the per capita expense, caused mainly by an increased cost of clothing and provisions. The farm and garden have yielded a bountiful crop and the livestock is all in a thriving condition. Dr. Pember also will submit the following report:

The year ending Sept. 30, 1899, has been marked by much that is interesting in my department. There have been fifteen deaths among the insane and thirteen among the dependents. There is an increase of eight over the previous year, due to the fact that an unusual number of the very old in both institutions have passed away during the year. There has been a very small amount of general sickness, a large number of the deaths being due to the gradual decline of the vital powers due to extreme age; no real sickness but a slow failing of strength until some slight trouble appeared and death ended the scene. The most frequent causes of death have been old age, consumption and epilepsy in the order named. The sanitary surroundings have been excellent and the year has been almost entirely free from cases of bowel trouble which are so common in most institutions. No epidemic disease of any character has occurred. A comparison of the ages of the inmates who have died during the past year is of great interest. Out of a total of twenty-eight deaths, sixteen, or nearly two-thirds of the entire number, were over seventy years of age at the time of death. Of these, one-half, or eight in all, had passed another decade and were over eighty years of age. Again, three of these were over ninety years of age and one came within one year of finishing a century of life.

HIGH JUSTICE COURT

French Senate Has Begun Trial of Alleged Conspirators Against State.

Paris, Nov. 9.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—The senate sat as a high court of justice today to try the conspirators against the state, who were brought before that body to hear the indictments against them read.

BLOODSHED IS FEARED

Bitter Contest Over Election in Kentucky is Certain.

TAYLOR STILL LEADS

Both Parties Make Vigorous Claims to Having Carried the State.

TWO GUBERNATORIAL INAUGURATIONS PROBABLE.

Completed Returns This Morning Make Taylor 536 Votes in the Lead—Republicans Have Quite a Job on Their Hands to Keep What They Have Won—If the Goebel Men Have Not Won Enough Seats to Control Legislature They Threaten to Steal Enough—Fifteen Dead in Election Riots.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—It will require the official returns tomorrow to arrive at any satisfactory conclusion as to which party won in Kentucky. Completed returns this morning make Taylor for governor 536 votes ahead. A contest is certain and two gubernatorial inaugurations are probable. Plenty of bloodshed is predicted.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 9.—[Special Telegram to The Gazette]—Returns from 111 of the 119 counties of Kentucky show a plurality of 2,501 for Taylor, republican. The eight counties yet to be heard from are about a standoff politically and cannot change the figures more than 100 or so either way. The legislature is yet undecided, but will be close, the republicans controlling the house and the democrats the senate.

Now the republicans have won, their present endeavor is to keep what they have got. This morning it looks as if they have quite a job on their hands.

Stealing of Seats Suggested. It is reported today that word has been sent to the various county election boards through the state to steal enough Goebel democratic candidates for the legislature to secure the requisite majority. As there are eighteen legislative districts in which the results are so close no one knows who is elected this course is practical.

In Louisville warrants have been sworn out against upward of 200 election officers and others—alleging intimidation of voters. The case will be presented to the Federal Grand jury.

Goebel Men Want Blood

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 9.—Senator William Goebel arrived here last night and is now in conference with the campaign leaders. In front of the Capitol Hotel he delivered a fiery speech to a knot of listeners, in which he very vaguely hinted at taking the Governor's chair. He said: "I believe I have been elected. Taylor says he assumes the responsibility, but I say to you that the people of Kentucky are assuming. We shall have four years of democratic rule by the common people. It will not be an administration of bayonets, such as Bill Bradley insists upon."

Willard Mitchell was introduced to the crowd by Goebel as the gamest democrat in Kentucky. He said:

"Before Bradley can name a governor of Kentucky, by the eternal gods, we will not leave a white republican in Kentucky. Go home and prepare yourselves to assist in the inauguration of Bill Goebel."

ELECTION RIOTS IN KENTUCKY

Number of Killed Placed at Fifteen and Wounded Twelve

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 9.—The list of killed and wounded throughout Kentucky, due to election troubles, is increasing. During the last forty-eight hours the number of killed reported is fifteen, and the number of wounded, twelve.

A big battle is reported to have taken place at the mouth of Boone's Fork, in Letcher county, the details of which have not been received. Election riots were numerous. In an affray at Covington one man and a mule were killed, and several persons are said to have been wounded. At Bee Spring, Edmonson county, four persons were wounded in a riot.

Confirm News of Yesterday.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 9.—Chairman Ed. misten of the populist state central committee, said this morning that the majority for the fusion state ticket in Nebraska would be at least 18,000.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 9.—Virginia's new legislature will be overwhelmingly democratic, and Thomas S. Martin will be returned to the United States senate. Des Moines, Nov. 9.—Leslie M. Shaw

T. C. RICHMOND FOR THE FLAG.

Exponent of Free Silver Believes In Expansion.

The most effective campaign speech made by a democrat, that Janesville people heard during the last presidential campaign, was made by Attorney Thomas C. Richmond of Madison. A big crowd heard him, and his talk was a vote winner. For this reason, his ideas of the policy of the administration will be of interest to the people of the Bower City. They are embodied in the following extracts from a letter to the Madison Democrat:

We hear much today about what some are pleased to call "imperialism." The government of the United States—the present administration—is charged with a desire to usurp power, an ambition to establish empire, a tendency to favor military rather than civil authority. Our government is charged with fostering a spirit of conquest. The great republic that stands conspicuous as an example of popular government is arraigned, and that too by some of its own citizens, as a tyrant, a dictator, a reactionist, an oppressor.

It is pertinent and timely to ask—what does all this mean? What have we done, or are we doing, to justify these charges, to merit this rebuke, to furnish reason for these reproaches? Why all this excitement? For one, I believe the charges are false, the rebukes unmerited and the reproaches undeserved.

War Was Righteous.

The Spanish war was the cause, or rather the occasion, of all this trouble. It was a righteous war. It put an end to unspeakable cruelty, to indescribable barbarity in the West Indies. It was justifiable on every ground—national and international, moral and commercial, religious and patriotic. We could not, without stultification, have avoided the war; we cannot, without cowardice and pusillanimity, fail to accept the results or meet the obligation those results impose.

Under all the circumstances, it was right to wage war on Spain. Having been forced to war, it was right to strike swiftly and fearlessly whenever and wherever we could weaken the enemy or cripple or destroy her forces. It was right to destroy the Spanish fleet at Manila and overthrow the Spanish power in the Philippine islands. Having overthrown the only government there was in the Philippines, it became our immediate duty to establish a better one. Not to have done that would have invited murder and pillage, fire and sword, riot and anarchy. It became our duty to preserve order, to maintain good government, to establish justice. It became our duty to protect property and life, to encourage trade and commerce, to uphold liberty and law. The government of the United States has attempted to discharge that duty, and that is the sum of its offending. It has insisted upon meeting the demands of the hour, the international obligations of its new position, and that seems to be the cause of all this outcry.

Cause of the War.

When the war began, no one could predict the outcome. We did not, could not, know what turn affairs would take, what new conditions would arise, what unexpected developments we would have to meet. We simply knew we were right in putting an end to tyranny and cruelty in Cuba. Spain had outraged the moral sense of the world, and the world recognized and admitted our duty to act. And so the war went on; bringing to us an unbroken series of victories, an unparalleled succession of triumphs. Spain disappeared from the West Indies. The Philippine islands were without any government, excepting such as the United States would organize, establish and maintain there.

For hundreds of years Spain had exercised sovereignty in that archipelago. That tells the whole story. For hundreds of years there was conflict—Maya savagery against Spanish barbarism. Personal freedom, civil liberty, constitutional law, were either absolutely unknown or faintly comprehended. America's appearance on the scene produced an indescribable change. A new flag was put in the heavens. A new political gospel was preached. A new world was opened to those who heretofore had sat in darkness and ignorance. New duties and grave responsibilities came to the nation that took from the Philippines the flag of red and yellow, of blood and plunder.

Duty of the Nation.

And now we are told that to remain there, to establish order, to administer justice, to suppress strife, to restrain savagery, to introduce civilization, to teach industry, to enlarge trade, to build up commerce, to root out ignorance and prejudice, to enlighten the people, is imperialism. We are told that because we do not take down our flag and leave those islands and all their business interests to the tender mercies of the natives, an overwhelming majority of whom are not even semi-civilized, we are false to democratic ideals, and faithless to the great trust committed to our care. We are told that we ought to establish an independent republic there, withdraw our forces and warn other nations to keep their hands off; that is, we should consider ignorant, half savage islanders capable of doing what is now being done by the most enlightened and highly civilized people on the globe; that is, we should allow them to conduct their own affairs, domestic and foreign, but we should protect them against all foreign interference; that is, we should hold the guardian responsible for the acts of his ward, without giving him power to restrain, direct or control the ward. A mere statement of such a case ought to be sufficient. We cannot give the islands back to Spain. We cannot trade them off or turn them over, as so much merchandise, to any other nation. We cannot leave them to themselves—mere derelicts in the great ocean, to be picked up by the first nation that runs across them. Even those who shout most lustily about anti-imperialism, admit that we ought to protect the Philippines against all foreign aggressors; that we must stand ready to shield them, but never interfere with them; we are in duty bound to strike their assailant, no matter whence he comes, but never to discipline or guide them. We have enough of that business already with Hayti and the Central and South American republics. Protection and direction should go hand in hand.

The flag represents freedom. It is not true that the flag of the United States represents either tyranny or imperialism, injustice or oppression, severity or despotism; either in the Philippine islands or in any place on the earth. It is not true that in Manila or anywhere else it is the emblem of irresponsible or arbitrary power. It is not true that it is the symbol of militarism. It is true that wherever it floats it is the flag of the free; wherever it goes it brings liberty and enlightenment; wherever it is unfurled it represents progress, civilization, human advancement. Under its folds oppression is unknown, the cruel hand of savagery is stayed and man begins the march to a higher life.

If it be said that we cannot acquire territory by conquest I answer we did not begin, nor are we now carrying on a war of conquest; and further, Chief Justice Marshall long ago said of the United States government, "That government possesses the power of acquiring territory, either by conquest or by treaty."

If it be said that we did not consult the wishes of the Filipinos, I answer we did not consult the inhabitants of Alaska, Porto Rico, Louisiana or our great southwest territory.

If it be said that the Filipinos have a right to do as they please, to establish and maintain their own government, I answer there is no evidence, that Aguinaldo and his followers represent all or any appreciable number of the natives; and further, that the Philippine islands, and all other lands for that matter, must be won and held for civilization and enlightenment. Savagery and barbarism must now give way and permit this earth, and all of it, to become inhabitable, the home of a prosperous and happy people.

Destiny of the United States.

If it be said that this nation cannot exist, half republic and half empire, I answer (1), there is not now, nor has there been in the past, any, even the slightest, tendency to empire, or to forsake truly democratic principles; (2), the doctrine that government shall derive its just powers from the consent of the governed, presupposes a people capable of self-government, and never intended to apply to a savage or semi-civilized people; and (3), the doctrine advanced by these "unco-gold" people would surrender all the islands of the sea and the dark continents to barbarism or the irresponsible rule of kings and emperors. We cannot for a moment admit that the United States, the most powerful and highly civilized nation in the world, is the only nation that cannot possess and govern any of the islands of the sea; the only nation whose shield of law cannot be used to protect the weak; the only nation that cannot carry liberty and law to the uncivilized and unenlightened.

This doctrine puts a premium on tyranny and oppression, and discredits and disparages true republicanism. No man who is a true American will say that England or France or Germany or Russia may possess and rule the Philippines, but the United States cannot. What loyal American will admit that? Some democratic leaders are making a fearful mistake on this subject and many well meaning people are being misled.

Democratic Party and Wars.

The democratic party cannot at this time afford to make a mistake on this question. It cannot afford to raise a false alarm to encourage the nation's enemies, to create doubts as to the nation's wisdom, or fears as to its power. Too much is at stake. I do not hesitate to say that but for the dissensions at home, but for the encouragement given to the disaffected Filipinos by some of our own people, the insurrection would long ago have been suppressed. A united nation would speedily crush out all opposition.

The democratic party, once upon a time, in national convention assembled, declared a certain war a failure, and it took it over a quarter of a century to outgrow the stigma of that utterance. Is it wise to repeat the experiment? Is it prudent or patriotic to embarrass the government when its soldiers are in the field and when it is attempting to discharge a duty that the world admits rests upon us? Must we retreat before barbarism or shrink from a conflict in defense of civilization and human progress? Do we, as a nation, whose citizens travel, reside and do business everywhere, whose commerce will in the near future cover every sea, whose power is, and is to be, dominant in the Pacific, whose laws and institutions elevate and bless all who come in contact with them—do we own no duty to the world in restraining savagery and redeeming the waste places of the earth? Do we expect to enjoy all the benefits and blessings of peace and civilization without hearing any part of the "white man's burden?"

We make nothing by raising false alarms or by misrepresenting the purpose and object of our government in carrying out its foreign policy. The policeman is not a tyrant. The United States soldier is neither a despot nor the instrument of despotism. Preserving the peace and establishing good government where for centuries disorder and rebellion prevailed is not oppression. Government by the United States or the protection of its flag, is not imperialism, but liberty, true liberty, an opportunity to progress, to advance, to rise to a higher life, under wise laws rigidly and impartially enforced.

EVENTS FOR THIS EVENING

MARQUETTE club will hold forth with interesting program.

NIGHT of prayer.

REGULAR meeting of Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 171. All members of the staff are requested to be present.

CAKE walk at the Trades Council masquerade at the armory. Only for local competitors.

A REGULAR meeting of the Marquette club will be held at 8 o'clock at the rooms of the Rock County Caledonian society. All members are requested to be present.

SPECIAL MEETING TOMORROW

Membership of the Art League is increasing these days.

Members of the Art League will hold a special meeting tomorrow afternoon at 8 o'clock at the South Main street home of Mrs. Walter Helms. An interesting program has been prepared, and a full attendance is desired. The membership list now numbers fifty-five, and is steadily increasing. In all parts of the county art leagues are forming, and it is quite evident that they are in favor as a means of education.

The noble army of self-supporting women find "Orangeine" a great help in their hours of suffering. Safely stops pain.

called Grano-O. It is a delicious, appetizing, nourishing food drink to take the place of coffee. Sold by all grocers and liked by all who have used it because when properly prepared it tastes like the most delicious fruit from all the various properties. Grano-O aids digestion and strengthens the nerves. It is not a stimulant but a health builder, and children as well as adults, can drink it with great benefit. Costs about 1/4 as much as coffee, 19¢ and 25¢

PARIS EXPO LEAF

TOBACCO EXHIBIT

AMERICAN SAMPLES ARE NOW BEING COLLECTED.

All of the Tobacco Growing Districts in the United States Will be Represented—Finer Grades of Cigar Types Include the Wisconsin Product.

The leaf tobacco exhibit for the Paris Exposition of 1900 is now being prepared for shipment in the Division of Soils of the Department of Agriculture at Washington. This will be without doubt the finest collection ever exhibited by the United States. It includes the varieties, grades, types and qualities of tobacco from all of the principal tobacco growing sections of this country. This display will comprise only the raw material, supplemented by a large collection of photographs and, in a few instances, samples illustrating the different stages of the tobacco in the process of manufacturing.

The leaf tobacco exhibit is under the immediate direction of Prof. Milton Whitney, chief of the Division of Soils, assisted by Marcus L. Floyd, tobacco expert of that division. All of the important tobacco growing districts were visited by Mr. Floyd during July and August, when material was collected for this exhibit. Neither time nor labor has been spared to make this display a credit to the United States at large.

In the collection of samples now being packed for shipment the variety of shading, from the bright yellow and white Burley to the dark wrappers and African black, immediately attracts the eye. The uniformity, the arrangement of the samples, the difference in texture of the thin and heavy leaves, the various qualities, and the large number of grades, are features of the display. The lover of the plug, the cigarette, the pipe and the expensive "Havana," will find his special "weed" in the raw material. The stogies, snuffs, and pipe-smoking tobaccos are also represented in the collection.

The differences in the foreign types are worthy of consideration. These are not foreign in the sense that they are grown in other lands, but in the sense that they are cured and manipulated according to the demands of the foreign trade. To the general public such differences are often hardly perceptible, but in the trade the slightest shade of color or thickness or body of the leaf, and often the length, is taken into account.

England takes all kinds of tobaccos, while Austria prefers the medium colors, with a long, broad, silky leaf with small fibers. The dark brown types find the highest favor among the Italians, and the French like a still darker leaf, long and smooth, about the same in quality as the Italian, but made darker by stemming and hard pressure. Spain prefers a fine, leafy lug, such as is grown in Kentucky and Tennessee, while Portugal requires a medium sized red leaf. Belgium, Denmark, and Norway use all grades of the bright tobaccos, and Holland and Sweden prefer the dark, heavy types. The low grades find favor among the Germans, Japanese and Chinese, while the African demands a black, oily type.

All of the tobacco sections have displayed much concern in this exhibit and have shown much pride in the arrangement of the samples contributed. Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, Kentucky and Maryland contribute to the display of what is known as the manufactured and export types, such as are used for cigarettes, plug, snuff, chewing and pipe smoking and export tobaccos. The finer grades, the cigar types, are represented by types from Texas, Connecticut, Florida, New York, Pennsylvania, Wisconsin and Ohio.

The finest types, so far as price is concerned, are furnished in the form of the Cuban and Sumatran varieties, which are equal in quality to the imported goods. The exhibit will be supplemented by tobacco in the various stages occurring, manipulation, and fermentation, and by literature relating to tobacco in all its branches.

The collection will include about one thousand samples and will be ready for shipment early in November. The exhibit is to represent the various tobaccos of the United States rather than the display of any particular firm. With a few exceptions the samples are in duplicates, the duplicates to be reserved for the judges of awards. The tobacco exhibit will be accompanied by many photographs illustrating the tobacco industry from seed to finish.

Send Greeting to McKinley.
Washington, Nov. 9.—The following cablegram has been received at the war department:

"Manila, Nov. 7.—The following, received from Negros, dated today: 'To the president of the United States: The civil governor, councilors, judges, and secretaries who constitute the new government of this island, in taking possession there on this day, have the high honor of affectionately saluting your excellency and trust that in the inauguration of this form of government, based upon the liberal and democratic institutions which have made that great republic so grand and prosperous, that a new era will open up to this region which will enable it to reach the legitimate goal of its inspiration.'"

"MENEĆIO SEVERILO."
"OTIS."

Suspend Tax on Call Loans.

New York, Nov. 9.—Charles H. Treat, collector of internal revenue for the second district of New York, received instructions from Washington today to suspend the collection of the tax on call loans pending a decision by the attorney general. Mr. Treat thereupon announced that he would immediately notify those interested in the case that nothing further would be done by the New York office until the Washington authorities had been heard from again.

Fired Under White Flag.

Lourenco Marques, Nov. 5 (delayed in transmission).—A runner from Ingavuma, Zululand, brings news that Nov. 1, 350 Boers invaded British territory and advanced toward the fort at Ingavuma with a white flag. When they were 100 yards distant they fired volleys into the fort, which, however, had been evacuated. The Boers burned all the stores on the Lebombo and thoroughly ransacked Pemorsdorp, which they burned to the ground.

State Department Not Advised.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The state department has not yet been advised of the agreement between Great Britain and Germany respecting the Samoan group. It is gathered, however, that if the outline of the arrangement set out in the cable advices is accurate, there will be no disposition to withhold our approval, provided certain minor conditions are included.

To Protect Orange Free State.

Colesburg, Monday, Nov. 6.—It is reported that 3,000 Boers have left Pretoria and are going to protect the southern border of the Orange Free State. They are said to be accompanied by a large contingent of German artillery, with quick-firing guns of heavy caliber.

Big Gold Brick at Kootenai.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 9.—A $100,000 gold brick, the largest ever melted in a Canadian mine, is to be sent down from the Kootenai district shortly. This year's wash-up is the richest ever known in the district.

Leyds Gets a Broad Hint.

London, Nov. 9.—A special dispatch from The Hague says Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal, has received a friendly intimation that his visit to Holland during the war must cease.

Schalkberger at Vryheid.

Durban, Natal, Sunday, Nov. 5.—Gen. Schalkberger, with 1,300 men, has arrived at Vryheid, on his way to Swaziland. It is believed he is going to Zululand.

BROTHERHOOD THE REMEDY

Interesting Lectures Saturday Night at All Souls Church.

"Universal Brotherhood, Organization and Its Work; 'Brotherhood the Only Remedy,' and 'Reincarnation.' These topics will be ably presented Saturday night at All Souls church by three prominent citizens of Milwaukee, Chas. W. Denicke of art metal manufacturing interests; Lucius H. Canzon, paying teller of the Milwaukee postoffice, and Dr. Warren B. Hill, surgeon of Trinity hospital, and one of the faculty of the Milwaukee Medical college. The gentlemen pay their own expenses, and give these lectures for the good that may result. No admission; no collection.

These lectures will take place under the auspices of the local Universal Brotherhood lodge No. 147.

PAINTING THE MAIL BOXES

Workmen Sent Out By the Government Have the Work in Hand

It is expected that the mail boxes in the city will be newly painted in a few days by men sent from Washington. They are now painting in other cities in the state. Two coats are given, first a coat of white, then a coat of aluminum bronze. When the work is completed the boxes will look very attractive and will be easily visible by night. Small boys often deface a box, but if caught they will be severely dealt with, as there is a very heavy fine for anyone caught defacing Uncle Sam's property.

Willowdale News.

Willowdale, Wis., Nov. 9.—Between thirty five and forty people attended the oyster supper given by the Y. P. L. C. at the home of the treasurer last Monday evening. After the supper was over the guests tripped the light fantastic toe 'till the wee sma' hours. The merry makers departed hoping that the Y. P. L. C. would soon give another good time. The next meeting will take place Friday evening, Nov. 17th. The Y. P. L. C. is more prosperous since excluding an objectionable member. Mr. M. B. Downing of Koschkonong was a visitor here this week. Miss Mamie Kealy of Edgerton, was the guest of Miss Mamie Mooney Sunday. Carpenters are repairing a barn on the Fitch farm west of the village. E. Brinkman is nursing a fractured hand. Mr. H. Heitz returned from Watertown last Monday evening, after spending a few days there. Frank Brown held the lucky number that drew Mrs. E. H. Brown's bicycle last Saturday evening. Fish Bros. threshing outfit was at work in this vicinity last week. H. Donahue of Janesville was a caller here Wednesday.

President Will Spare Them.

Washington, Nov. 9.—President McKinley will commute the sentences of death imposed by court-martial in the cases of the enlisted men convicted by court-martial of attacking Filipino women, and they will probably be sentenced to life imprisonment.

To Maintain the Open Door.

London, Nov. 9.—The Morning Post publishes the following dispatch from Washington: "Negotiations in London have resulted in an agreement between Great Britain, China and the United States to maintain the 'open door' in China, which power will undertake to develop both British and American trade. It is understood that Germany and probably Russia will give the United States written assurances as to the maintenance of the open door."

Will Rebuild at Waukegan.

New York, Nov. 9.—The directors of the American Steel and Wire company met here Wednesday. The officers of the company at the conclusion of the meeting refused to give out any information as to what business was transacted. It was reported on the street during the day that the Waukegan plant of the company, recently burned, would be rebuilt and enlarged at a cost of $1,500,000.

Ask Congress to Adopt Gold.

New York, Nov. 9.—The New York board of trade and transportation adopted the following: "Resolved, That we ask the congress of the United States to enact a law establishing the gold dollar as a standard and measure of value, and providing that bonds and notes of the United States and all paper money, including national bank notes, shall be redeemable in gold."

French Commercial Treaty.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Gaulois states that the Franco-American commercial treaty will be submitted to the chamber of deputies when that body meets Nov. 14.

No Comment by McKinley.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The president and Mrs. McKinley reached Washington at 1 o'clock Wednesday. Secretary Porter met the president at the station and gave him several telegrams containing late election returns. The president made no comment upon the result, but his smiling countenance showed that he was well pleased.

Republican Majority Is 7,000.

Aberdeen, S. D., Nov. 9.—Complete returns from the state at large confirm estimates of a republican majority of 7,000 to 10,000 for supreme judge.

Explains Tammany's Triumph.

New York, Nov. 9.—Tammany's triumph at the election in New York county is declared by anti-Tammany politicians to have been perfectly natural, in view of the lack of interest in the campaign. They said that the issues at stake in the election had been too unimportant to bring out the independent vote, while the Tammany vote came out, as it always does.

The next assembly will be republican by at least thirty-four majority.

1872—Great Boston fire; 65 acres of the business district burned over; loss, $50,000,000.

1892—Duke of Marlborough, notorious as the Marquis of Blandford, died.

1893—Professor Herman August Hagen of Harvard college, well known entomologist, died at Cambridge, Mass.; born 1817. Annie Pixley, popular American actress, died in London.

SENSATIONALISM.

A well known business man, who goes regularly to church, made this remark in the hearing of the writer:

"I learn by the card that I hold in my hand that the Rev. Mr. So-and-So is going to preach a series of sensational sermons. I'm sorry, for he's a bright and good man, but that kills him. He won't stay in Janesville six months."

We wish to take issue with him on his statement. The fact that a minister whom we all know to be sincere, able and sensible, sees fit to preach upon "vice," in no way stamps him as a sensationalist. Neither does the fact that he has gathered his information by a personal inspection in the saloons and other resorts, perhaps, lay him open to the charge.

In preaching upon "vice," the minister is only doing his duty. In securing the facts for his sermon—as near the facts as it is possible to secure under the circumstances—by personal contact, he is only making sure that he knows whereof he speaks. In forming his facts into the most effective sermon possible, and seeking to have the largest possible audience listen to him, he is only making the most of his opportunities.

He is not preaching sensational sermons, he is only displaying his goods to the best possible advantage. He is a progressive, enterprising minister—one who can and will accomplish much good, and receive due recognition at the hands of the people.

And with the newspaper the case is exactly parallel—whether it is indulging in "cheap sensationalism," depends wholly upon the point of view.

The newspaper that prints the news—all of it unless it be unclean or unwholesome—is only performing its duty. If it gets the facts—as near the facts as it can secure under the circumstances—it is doing all that can be required of it. If it arranges these facts in the most effective manner possible, and uses a heading befitting the importance, to the general reader, of the news, it is only making the most of its opportunities.

It is not practicing sensationalism, it is only displaying its goods to the best possible advantage. It is a progressive, enterprising newspaper—one that will and can accomplish much good, and receive due recognition at the hands of the people.

The fact that some people, and perhaps some ministers, criticize the enterprising preacher should in no way influence him. And the fact that some people, and perhaps some newspapers, criticize the enterprising publication should in no way influence it.

The minister will make some minor errors in drawing conclusions from what he sees and hears. The newspaper will do the same, but in both cases the material facts will remain.

"Be sure you are right"—as near right as possible—"and then go ahead."

Constant Reader—Yes, we have read the articles you mention, but as the person who wrote them owns no interest in this paper, is not a subscriber to this paper, and the articles of which complaint is made had no application, personally to him or her, we do not consider the matter any of his or her business. Meddlers and gossips do not count for anything these busy days.

The report of Paymaster General Bates of the army shows the following main items of expenditure during the last fiscal year: Regular army, $34,141,225; volunteer army, $35,877,177; disbandment of Cuban army, $905,100; extra pay to volunteers, war with Spain, $448,932; extra pay regulars, war with Spain, $202,297.

Milwaukee Wisconsin: There is no confirmation of the report that Atkinal do has cabled Aguinaldo to this effect: "Dear Agui: Boston has gone Democratic. Great rebuke to administration. Brace up. Whenever you see the stars and stripes shoot it on the spot."

The boy who cried "wolf!" when there was no wolf, finally fell victim to the voracious beast. So in these modern days—the man who sits still and devotes all his energies to complaining, will soon find himself without sustenance, reputation, or audience.

Esterhazy has finally landed in prison having been convicted of swindling his cousin. He was only sentenced to three years, however, when he should be compelled to end his days behind the bars.

The people have just paid $6095.54 because of a DEFECTIVE SIDEWALK. Bear this fact in mind, also, while you are remembering the damage suits, and don't forget the sidewalks, either.

General Wheeler says the Filipinos can be easily conquered, and that short work will be made of them when the campaign fairly opens.

The American people are not easily stampeded. They know a good thing in politics as well as in their other affairs.

And it is also simple justice to Janesville to state that in no city of equal size in the northwest, will less vice be found.

"When you see it in the Gazette it is new and true." Never rehash under the guise of "a correction."

The standard republican majority, these days, runs from 20,000 to 140,000.

"Kentucky's dark and bloody ground" appears to be still republican politically.

Even the fact that Dewey is to marry his sister, didn't save John R. McLean.

We should have all the factories and all the railroads that we can get.

Bryan didn't carry Nebraska. Nebraska carried Bryan.

McLean can now Nash his teeth.

Cost of Automobiles.

St. Louis Republic: In determining the expense of the automobile the cost of power is everything. When the test was made the power came from a central power house, which will, of course, be the case in every community where mobiles are much used. But a test was also made with a gas engine, such as may be set up in any cellar or stable, and it was found that the power for charging electric batteries, could be produced at the rate of from two to three cents a working hour. At this rate, the cost a mile is about 13.21 cents as against 13.88 cents, when the vehicle is drawn by horses. This is a saving of 95.4 cents a wagon a day, and as the mobile takes only four horses to travel 36 miles, as against 5.14 hours required by the other vehicle, this is a time saving on each wagon of 356 hours each year.

Thought He'd Been Hit.

Gallipolis (Ohio) Tribune: A funny story is told of an old farmer in an adjoining county who was struck by lightning. The countryman was squatting on his heels in front of a barn door, and was engaged in a somewhat acrimonious argument with a neighbor about some steers that had broken into his corn patch. Just as the controversy reached its highest point a bolt of lightning from a passing storm cloud knocked the old farmer over. When he came to his senses he thought the neighbor had struck him, and he began to pummel him with his fists in lively manner, when his son spoiled the fight by explaining the cause of the trouble. Now the old farmer is kept busy telling how it was.

Carving Knife 9 Feet 3 Inches Long.

A gigantic carving knife and fork, made by a cutlery concern in this state, and to be exhibited by it at the Pan-American Exposition, at Buffalo, in 1901, are on exhibition in an up-town department store, says a western paper. The knife is 9 feet 11 inches long and weighs over 800 pounds. The blade is made of the finest steel and is covered with beautiful etchings. The handle is one gigantic tusk of solid ivory, handsomely carved by hand. These tusks were imported especially for this knife and fork. The fork is a perfect match for the knife, the pair costing over $2,500 to make. Truly a carving set for giants.

Cards for High Degree.

New York Tribune: Royalty uses more calling cards than any other class of people: Secretaries are engaged to see that all congratulations, regrets, etc., are acknowledged, for etiquette is one of the duties of royalty. The Prince of Wales uses two sets of cards. He has one for home use, on which is written "Albert Edward," and the other for abroad, on which is his title, "Le Prince de Galles." Jeweled cases are not used any more. Russian leather with a monogram in the right hand corner in jewels, silver or gold, is a favorite style.

Another Form of Crank.

The audience applauded rapturously, and the favorite prima donna came before the curtain and bowed her thanks. Again the audience applauded, and again the cantatrice appeared, smiled, bowed, and retired.

The great songstress was slow in acknowledging a third recall, and an earnest-looking man arose in one of the boxes, thrust one hand inside his waistcoat, commanded silence with the other, and when the house became quiet he spoke as follows:

"While the gifted queen of song whom we all admire is making up her mind as to the selection she will sing in response to your enthusiastic encore I wish to present a few of the reasons that have led me to the conclusion that the twentieth century will begin Jan. 1, 1900."—Chicago Tribune.

DEAD AT MANILA

GALLANT BADGER OFFICER SUCCUMBS TO WOUNDS.

Winfield Smith a Pioneer Milwaukeean Dies in London—Mrs. Baker Wants a Divorce—Lost Wausau Boy Found Dead in a Swamp—State News.

Eau Claire, Wis., Nov. 9.—Maj. M. J. McGrath received a message yesterday from Washington announcing the death of his son who was seriously wounded in the hip while leading a cavalry charge on the city of Novella. It was not first thought the wound would be fatal and the news of his death was a great shock to his family.

His wife was completely prostrated. Captain McGrath was an officer of the Fourth Cavalry and had done distinguished service in the Philippines, at one time like Funston, swimming a river in the face of Filipino bullets, to secure canoes to convey his force across, an act of bravery which Prof. Worcester of the Philippine commission recently commented on as one of the most heroic deeds of the war. Capt. McGrath's wife was the daughter of the late William Carson, a wealthy lumberman of this city. He leaves several children.

Capt. McGrath was about 45 years old and spent his boyhood in this city, where he received his early education.

The body will be brought to Eau Claire and it is expected it will reach here in about six weeks.

MILWAUKEEAN DIES IN LONDON

Winfield Smith, a Pioneer Succumbs to Heart Disease.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 9.—Winfield Smith, an early day capitalist of this city and one of its most widely known citizens, died of heart disease in London last evening. He was born at Fort Howard, near Green Bay, Aug. 16, 1827. He was named after General Winfield Scott, with whom his father had served. He graduated from Michigan University and came to Milwaukee in 1849.

In 1862 he was appointed Attorney General of the state and in 1872 was elected to the assembly. He retired from law practice in 1888.

For about a dozen years Mr. Smith was president of the Cream City Street railway lines, which operated mule cars on the east and south sides of the city. Since 1895 Mr. Smith had spent much of his time in European travel. Although of democratic antecedents, Mr. Smith was a republican, siding with that party in the slavery question.

Mr. Smith is survived by his widow and three small children.

Found Dead in a Swamp.

Wausau, Wis., Nov. 9.—Yesterday afternoon the body of Roy Crow, aged four years, who disappeared from his home near Kelly Monday forenoon, was found under a windfall in a swamp two miles from his home, the little fellow having died from exposure, hunger and fatigue. The boy was lying on his stomach and apparently had been dead several hours. His face and hands were scratched, and one shoe had been lost.

Murder in First Degree.

Milwaukee, Wis., Nov. 9.—Ransom Wiltsie, the soldiers' home veteran, who has been on trial for the murder of Mrs. Maria Edgar on June 7, was last night found guilty by a jury of murder in the first degree, which means life imprisonment. Wiltsie put strychnine in a pail of beer which the woman and several other persons drank. The others were saved, however.

Mrs. Baker Wants a Divorce.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 9.—Divorce papers were filed today by Mrs. Mary S. Baker from State Senator O. S. Baker of Marion, Ind., on the ground of desertion. Mrs. Baker is the Russian Countess Nazimaw, who came to this country and married Baker, he at that time having a wife and family at Marion.

Founders' Day at Appleton.

Appleton, Wis., Nov. 9.—Gov. Scofield is to be present at the banquet to be given Monday at Lawrence university in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of Founders' day. The governor will deliver the principal address. The toastmaster is expected to be the Rev. John T. Cheynoweth. President Plantz will speak of the foundation of the institution. Dr. Henry Coleman, who was here when the first student was registered, will tell of those days. Byron J. Price of Hudson, and others will respond to toasts. The alumni are expected in large numbers.

DANCING PARTY GIVEN AT ARMORY

DELIGHTFUL SOCIAL FUNCTION
LAST EVENING.

Five Hundred Were the Guests of Mesdames James Harris, Arthur J. Harris and Misses Zelia and Ida Harris—Those Present From Out of the City.

Five hundred guests partook of the hospitality of Mesdames James Harris, Arthur J. Harris and Misses Zelia and Ida Harris, last evening, at a most delightful dancing party which held forth in the Armory.

In the way of caring for their guests the hostesses neglected nothing. At 6 o'clock the first of the guests arrived. They were received by the hostesses who were assisted by James Harris and A. J. Harris, the reception corner being in the north-west portion of the hall. From the reception corner the guests were immediately seated at small tables placed throughout the hall to the number of one hundred. The seating committee was composed of Mesdames Eliza Burpee and S. M. Smith and Misses Mabel Jackson, Mabel Shumway and Agnes Shumway.

Refreshments were served. At 7 o'clock all guests were seated and the serving of refreshments then took place. The tables were handsomely decorated and at each place appeared pink carnations. Serving of refreshments was in the hands of George A. Shurtleff and he neglected nothing in the way of first class service.

Following are the waitresses who performed their duty well:

Misses—
Eloise Nowlan, Lillian Mount,
Elizabeth Wilcox, Vera Wilcox,
Margaret Mount, Edith Loomis,
Libbie Graylin, Betty Kimball,
Belle Monzie, Louise Merrill,
Sarah Sutherland, Mary Stevens,
Edith Sayre, Gene Galbraith,
Joanette Sayre, Isabelle MacLean,
Genevieve Wilson, Lottie Whitton,
Jessie Spellman, Mary Atwood,
Florence McGregor, Margaret Jackson,
Lulu Packard.

During the serving of the repast Prof. Johnny Smith's orchestra of ten pieces furnished charming two step and waltz music.

At 9 o'clock dancing commenced and it was close to the 1 o'clock hour when the last of the guests took their departure.

The floor committee was composed of Messrs. W. A. Jackson, George Sale, George F. Kimball, William W. Watt, George W. Fifield and C. C. Russell.

During the dancing hour the serving of ices took place in one end of the hall. Those who cared not for dancing found comfort in easy chairs and inviting corners.

Decorations of the Armory.
In the way of decoration it is doubtful if the armory ever looked more inviting. There was not a dull spot in the entire hall. The bare walls were draped on all sides by a border of pink and white. Potted plants, palms and cut flowers were numerous and added to the beauty of the scene. The reception corner was unique and consisted of an oriental canopy offset by Turkish upholstery, rugs and curtains.

The balcony railing was hid from view by the extending of the pink and white border. Over the refreshment stand where ices were served, was a handsome canopy made of the same pink and white material. The orchestra stand was located in the south side of the hall and was completely hid from view by the abundant use of palms, smilax and potted plants.

The decorations were in the hands of Joseph A. Van Kirk and that he did himself proud was the opinion of all.

Handsome gowns made for the occasion were numerous and the toilettes were as handsome as any seen at a ball in Janesville. The hostesses have good reason to feel proud of the event of last evening.

Out of Town People Present.

Among those present from out of the city were:

Messrs and Mesdames—Frank Ruger West Superior; A. S. Thompson Beloit; Mrs. J. V. Norcross, Chicago.
Misses—Mary Peck Chicago; Nellie Sparks Beloit; Clara Guernsey, Dubuque.

Messrs—Charles Dow Madison; Edward Jones Belvidere; Walter Shuck Milwaukee.

MILWAUKEE STREET OPEN FOR TRAFFIC

BARRICADES REMOVED THIS MORNING.

Street Commissioner Fredericks Put on the Finishing Touches—Merchants Are Pleased for it Will Improve Their Business—Balance of Paving is Now Being Rushed.

At 10 o'clock this morning West Milwaukee street was opened for traffic. Brick paving on the south side of the thoroughfare has been completed from High street to the bridge. On the north side of the street the contractors expect to finish either at a late hour this afternoon or tomorrow morning the space from the bridge to River street.

By the resuming of traffic along the street the merchants are already commencing to notice a change for the better in business.

For several weeks past the merchants claim that business has been effected by the blocking of the street and much of their trade has gone to stores located on Main River and Jackson streets. When the space from the postoffice alley to River street is finished the entire street will then be paved with the exception of the space between the street car tracks.

Brick to be placed between the car rails is on hand, and the work of paving is now well under way and will be rushed to completion before cold weather sets in.

Vehicles of all kinds have been obliged to take roundabout routes over the Fourth avenue and Court street bridges on account of Milwaukee street being made impassable.

The fire department has also been hindered, and have been obliged to lose valuable time when responding to a call.

All these troubles have now been remedied by the opening of the street.

REV. FATHER RIVERS who has been assisting Rev. Father Wm. A. Goebel, has gone to Beloit to take Rev. Father J. M. Ward's place for two weeks.

FORGETFUL BOARDER PLACED IN BASTILE

LEFT UNPAID BILL AMOUNTING TO $13.50.

Frederick Brant of Evansville Was Brought to Janesville Last Evening and is Now in the Rock County Jail—Says There is a Mistake Some Where.

When the Evansville train pulled into Janesville last evening, Marshal Broughton alighted, having in charge Mr. Brant, who is a resident of the Out Off city. The prisoner was at once escorted to the Rock county bastille, where he was consigned to a cell by Deputy Brown.

The prisoner is charged with having such a poor memory that he forgot all about settling an alleged unpaid board bill in Evansville, amounting to $13.50. Mrs. Addie Babcock, a highly esteemed lady of Evansville, is the complaining witness, and according to her testimony she alleges that Frederick intended to leave not only the unpaid bill but for parts unknown as well, had she not detained him.

Mr. Brant claims there is a mistake somewhere. He does not deny that Mrs. Babcock is the best cook in Evansville, nor that for some time he boarded at her house and partook freely three times a day as well as the occupancy of a bed every night in the week. But he does say she has been a little harsh in trying to collect his bill.

This morning Attorney Phillips telephoned from Evansville and demanded that Mr. Brant be released on the grounds that he was arrested on a complaint in place of a regular warrant. District Attorney Jackson will look into the case. Brant is still in jail. He is an unmarried man of twenty seven years, and is well known in Evansville.

New Sample Jackets
Two hundred just in from an eastern maker. We will open this week a sample line of stylish coats, comprising about two hundred garments. They are for the most part a medium priced line—that is, such as would regularly be priced from one-fourth to one third more, but the fact that we secured them as samples at a liberal discount accounts for this special mention of the line. If you have not been able to find a garment to please you we will be glad to show you these. Archie Reid & Co.

A Strange Disease.
The physicians at Bellevue hospital, New York, are interested in a strange case. A woman was taken there recently suffering from a rare disease, which results in the swelling of parts of the body to gigantic proportions. The woman's head is twice the size of an ordinary man's head, her nose three times its normal size, and her hands twice the size of ordinary hands. The patient herself is more than six feet tall. She has a heavy beard and mustache. These and her hair are grey. The physicians believe that she will die from exhaustion in a short time.

Sold Again.

STONE CRUSHER ACCIDENT

John Joyce Has Three of His Fingers Badly Injured.

While at work with the city stone crusher this morning on the Barron farm John Joyce accidentally caught his left hand between the wheel and the shafting. When his hand was free Mr. Joyce soon discovered that three of his fingers had been badly crushed. The injured man was removed to the office of Dr. James Gibson where his injuries were dressed. W. E. Evenson, assisting. Bones in the fingers were fractured and all three digits were badly cut and crushed. Amputation was not necessary.

BEWARE OF THESE AGENTS

Are Selling Encyclopedias Which They Never Deliver to the Buyers.

Chief of Police Hogan has received word from Portage to be on the lookout for a gang of thieving book agents who are traveling in this portion of the state selling encyclopedias. They are charged with securing money under false pretenses. These agents visit you and get a cash deposit on books that they never deliver. In the northern portion of the state they secured considerable cash.

A Naval Solomon.
Captain McB., a canny Scot, was once in command of a troop ship returning from India. On board he had as passengers three ladies, all wives of officers in her majesty's service.

Now it fell out that the cabin allotted to them was fitted up to accommodate four, and consequently it contained four wash basins, one of which was far larger than the other three.

For the right to use this, special basin each lady put forth her claim, citing her husband's position in the army. But the husbands, unfortunately, all proved to be of equal rank, so to clinch the matter the trio boarded the captain in his cabin.

"We will leave it entirely to you, captain," they said, "and abide by your decision."

Captain McB. cogitated duly, and then declared solemnly, with the faintest twinkle in his gray eyes:

"Ladies, as it is no matter of rank, I think it will be that the oldest among you shall have the biggest bowl."

With murmured thanks they fled out again, but that basin was never used during the voyage.

DESERTED FAMILY ARRIVE IN WAGON

PITIFUL CASE FOR THE CITY AUTHORITIES.

Woman Reaches Janesville in a Covered Wagon With Small Children After Four Weeks of Travel From Iowa—Husband Who Promised to Meet Her is Missing.

After traveling in a covered wagon four weeks from the state of Iowa, with five small children, Mrs. J. O. Brinker arrived in Janesville this week only to find no trace of the husband who faithfully promised to meet her here. Where Brinker is his wife and children do not know.

Being without money Mrs. Brinker has been obliged to apply to the city authorities for aid and Chief of Police Hogan and Officer Kenyon now have the case in hand.

The heartbroken woman tells a pitiful tale. She left her Iowa home four weeks ago. Being without money and having a horse and wagon Mrs. Brinker thought it best that she start out with the five children and make the trip overland to Janesville. The Bower City was their destination for here Mr. Brinker claimed that he had been promised work, having at one time been employed at the woolen mill. After four weeks of hardship enroute the little band of wanderers arrived in Janesville cold and hungry.

Instead of a hearty reception here at the hands of a father and husband they found that more misery stared them in the face. Mr. Brinker said that he would ship the household furniture here but no furniture is at the local depots. Being without a single dollar the brave little woman told her sad story to Mr. Osborn who resides on Vernon avenue near Ruger avenue. Here the little band of wanderers are now being tenderly cared for till the city authorities take some action in the case.

The 5 children range from six months to fourteen years. Mrs. Brinker says that she does not believe that her husband has deserted her and that she will soon hear from him.

SULLIVAN SUES CITY OF JANESVILLE

LOCAL DRAYMAN WANTS
HEAVY DAMAGES.

Says That He Received Injuries as the Result of a Defective Street—Load of Leaf Tobacco Tipped Over on Him Has Engaged Attorneys Mahoney & Ryan.

John B. Sullivan, a local drayman has commenced a suit for damages against the city of Janesville for personal injuries. Mr. Sullivan sues for $1,051.

He alleges that while driving with a load of leaf tobacco on Adams street near Pleasant street his wagon overturned as the result of the wheels running into a portion of the street that was in poor condition. When his wagon upset Mr. Sullivan alleges that he was thrown violently to the ground and not only sustained injuries from the fall but he was injured by the heavy bales of tobacco which completely buried him.

Mahoney & Ryan have been engaged to look after the Sullivan interests and the case is to be heard at the coming November term of the Rock county circuit court.

LATE NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

JOUBERT NOT AGGRESSIVE.

Siege of Ladysmith Is Very Loosely Conducted.

FREQUENT SORTIES MADE.

Gen. White's Cavalry and Artillery Continually Harass the Boer Lines—Probability That Gen. Buller's Plans Will Have to Be Altered.

London, Nov. 9.—There is practically no further news from the seat of war this morning. It is asserted, under Sunday date from Estcourt, that Gen. White received a message from Sir Redvers Buller on Saturday. So far, however, no message appears to have been received in London from Gen. White concerning Thursday's and Friday's sorties. A special dispatch from Pietermaritzburg, dated Sunday, says: "It is confidently expected that railway communication will be restored with Ladysmith within a few hours."

London, Nov. 9.—Nothing has yet been received from Gen. White to confirm the reports of great British successes at Ladysmith or strengthening belief in the stories of appalling Boer losses, which appear to be the result of overripe imagination. The departure of Gen. French from Ladysmith, however, is taken by the war office to mean that Gen. White's position is improved, as it is argued that if Gen. White was in dire straits he would hardly spare so able and daring a soldier as Gen. French.

It is still taken for granted that the Boers continue to blaze away with their big guns, and it is suspected they are mounting more guns on the hill-sides around Ladysmith.

The daily and almost unlimited supply of big cannon the Boers have brought and are bringing into use is one of the many surprises they have worked on the British.

Whether the few naval guns from the Powerful can hold their own against the Boers is considered doubtful, and the question of how Ladysmith can be relieved is foremost in the minds of the English press and probably of the war office.

So much pressure is being brought to bear that it is more than likely the government will force Gen. Buller to change his plans of starting the campaign from the west and proceed as soon as possible and try to cut a way through the Boer lines, which now extend from Ladysmith almost to Pietermaritzburg, and save Gen. White's army, which is now almost sure of rout or capture.

So far as is known no transports have yet arrived at the Cape. This may be the result of storms, or it is not unlikely that one of Admiral Harris' cruisers has been sent with orders to intercept them and have them land at Durban instead. Considerable time in reaching Gen. White can be saved if the troops are landed at Durban, for at best much valuable time is going to be lost in getting the First army corps in proper shape to enter the field unless the emergency is extreme.

Whereas, it was declared officially a few days ago that Gen. Buller would be ready to advance on the 18th, the earliest date for the advance of the force is now given as the 25th or 30th. All of which looks as if the Boers will have plenty of time to take Ladysmith and perhaps Pietermaritzburg, making and Kimberley before the First army corps is ready for battle.

Mafeking continues to have an exciting time, but so far is holding its own.

Kimberley, up to the first of November, was reported all serene, the Sundays being enlivened with promenade concerts.

Still Watch the Straits.

London, Nov. 9.—The British torpedo-boat flotilla continues narrowly to patrol the straits. It is understood that this action is taken in view of the rumors that the Transvaal government has granted letters of marque and reprisal to wounding privateers of French and other nations.

Fleet to Welcome Emperor.

London, Nov. 9.—The special service squadron has been ordered to assemble at Spithead on Nov. 17, where it will be joined by four battleships. The whole fleet, it is asserted, is intended to welcome Emperor William on his arrival at Portsmouth Nov. 20.

All Quiet on Orange River.

Aliwal North, Nov. 9.—There is no difficulty in getting to the Maseru road. The wire is opened and all is quiet here.

No attempt has been made by the Boers to cross the Orange river either here or at Herschel.

Australia Sends 1,500 Troops.

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 9.—The total number of Australian troops which have sailed for South Africa is 1,500.

Rebel Captured in Manila.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Mail advices to the war department state that a native with a commission as lieutenant-colonel in the insurgent army has been captured in Manila. The prisoner had credentials from Aguinaldo to collect taxes from the inhabitants of Manila, and has been doing so and remitting the money to the rebel commander.

Gen. Ludlow Very Hopeful.

New York, Nov. 9.—Brig.-Gen. William Ludlow, military governor of Havana, arrived at this port Wednesday on the steamer Havana on a short vacation. He said to the reporters that he believed the feeling of Cubans toward Americans had greatly improved within a few months. "The Cubans are convinced now," he continued, "that our purposes are honest and friendly and are limited to such civil organization and industrial development as must precede establishment of a stable native government."

Nunez Loyal to the Americans.

Havana, Nov. 9.—Emilio Nunez, the successor of Gen. Ruiz Rivera as civil governor of Havana, formally took over the office Wednesday, declaring that he accepted the post with pleasure. "It is the duty of all Cubans," said the new civil governor, "to co-operate with the Americans in an honest endeavor to reconstruct the island, financially, politically and socially. I pledge my best efforts to harmonize all factions."

Plan to Help Money Market.

New York, Nov. 9.—Wall street believes that the government is to take a hand in the money market and relieve the stringency. According to the rumored plan of Secretary Gage the government is to buy $30,000,000 worth of bonds, and that much currency therefore will at once form a part of the ready money of New York, the bonds being held here. Bankers generally disbelieve the rumor.

Capture a Masked Robber.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Nov. 9.—Just before 6 o'clock last night a masked man entered the office of the Kent Furniture company and attempted to make off with about $5,000 which was in the office for the pay roll. He was seen and the entire office force attacked him and made him prisoner. He gave the names of Frederick Boos and had been employed in the factory.

Deaths in Kentucky Election Riots.

Lexington, Ky., Nov. 9.—The list of killed and wounded throughout Kentucky, due to election troubles, is increasing. During the last forty-eight hours the number of killed reported is fifteen and the number of wounded twelve. A big battle is reported to have taken place at the mouth of Boone's Fork, in Letcher county. Election riots were numerous.

Robert's Health Improves.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 9.—The condition of Vice-President Hobart has improved to such an extent during the last few days that some of his intimate friends now have hopes for the recovery of sufficient health for the patient to be spared to his family. Dr. Newton refuses to express an opinion as to whether Mr. Hobart has any chances for recovery.

Troops May Quit Cuba.

Washington, Nov. 9.—In order to avoid the charge of militarism already being circulated in certain political quarters, and preliminary to the appointment of civil governors, President McKinley and Secretary Root are considering the advisability of withdrawing troops from Cuba and Porto Rico.

Agreed Upon Politics.

Paris, Nov. 9.—The Berlin correspondent of the Gaulois says the interview at Potsdam between Emperor William and the czar resulted in decisions of the highest importance which will shortly have considerable consequences in modifying the policy of the two powers.

Giant Calico Trust Formed.

London, Nov. 9.—A huge corner in calico has been formed in Manchester. Businesses representing over £10,000, and capital have combined together to make one large concern, which will be governed by a board of directors, composed of the heads of the original firms.

Another Telephone Company.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 9.—Articles of incorporation were filed here Wednesday by the United Telephone and Telegraph company, with an authorized capital of $5,000,000.

Gen. Grubb Seriously Ill.

Burlington, N. J., Nov. 9.—Gen. E. Burd Grubb, former United States minister to Spain, is seriously ill at his residence here.

When looking after goods you see advertised in these columns just mention the fact that you saw it in The Gazette and it will insure you the best of bargains.

France Likely to Raise a Row.

London, Nov. 9.—The New York Journal correspondent cables: "The Samoan agreement is regarded here as a tacit alliance between Great Britain and Germany against France. Britain is now bitterly hating the French on account of the jeering hostility of the Parisian papers. It is pretty certain that France will try to raise a row over the cession of Togoland to Great Britain. To this part of the west coast of Africa France asserts claims. French possessions surround Togoland on three sides. Their explorers have tramped over it. Another Fashod-like row is pretty sure to follow."

Germany Welcomes the Czar.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—The German papers of all shades of opinion give the czar the heartiest welcome and emphasize the fact that the relations between Russia and Germany have greatly improved under the reign of Nicholas.

The liberal papers insist it is necessary to agree upon a commercial treaty in order to preserve the present amicable relations. The visit is regarded generally as having great political significance.

Torres Will Attack Yaqui.

Ortiz, Mexico, Nov. 9.—Two regiments of re-enforcements have joined the force of Mexican troops under command of Gen. Luis Torres near Torin. The whole body will begin a march up the Yaqui river as soon as scouting parties that have been sent out to learn the exact position of the Yaqui Indians return from their mission.

Samoa Question Is Settled.

Berlin, Nov. 9.—General satisfaction was caused by the official announcement that Great Britain and Germany have arrived at an agreement, subject to the consent of the United States, whereby Germany gets Upolu and Savaii, with their neighboring islands, Tutuila and adjacent islands falling to the United States.

AUTUMN PRESERVING.

A Few Hints and Recipes For Apples, Quinces, Pears, Etc.

The first coming of frost marks the preserving season for many housekeepers, partly because green tomatoes, pears, apples and quinces are likely to be lower in price than early in the season, and also because the work is more pleasant with the less ardent temperature of autumn mornings.

It is hardly necessary to say that preserving does not change the quality of fruit. A poor, flavorless apple or pear will make an insipid preserve. Fruit should be well ripened, but not mellow, as firmness is essential in preserves.

Pears and quinces are usually best for the purpose when picked somewhat green and ripened in a cool, dry place in the house.

Unless you prefer leathery preserves do not sprinkle the sugar over the fruit and allow it to stand and suck out the fruit juice.

The quince as a preserve has a very uncommon and characteristic flavor of its own to recommend it, besides the beautiful red color it takes when cooked long enough. For this preserve pare, core and quarter the quinces. Put them in the preserve pan with just sufficient water to cover them. Boil until beginning to get tender and then carefully lift out the fruit. To each pound allow a half pound of sugar, and for each three pounds of sugar allow one pint of water, including what remained of the water in which the fruit was boiled. When the sugar is dissolved and the sirup is boiling hot, put in the fruit and allow it to cook very slowly until it is quite tender, though not broken, and the sirup will jelly when a little is poured on a plate. Put the fruit in glass jars and pour the sirup over it, covering in the usual way. It is generally considered better to make up this preserve with equal quantities of quinces and apples, in which case the apples need not be previously boiled, but put in at the same time the quinces are removed to the hot sirup. The apples should be of a good, firm cooking variety, and they will acquire the flavor and color of the quinces.

Sweet pickled apples are almost as delicious as pears or peaches. Cut them in halves, cutting through the stem and leaving in the skin and core. Put three cloves in each half. Make a sweet sirup, allowing to six pounds of apples three pounds of sugar and a pint of vinegar. Bring the sirup to a boil, put the apples in and cook until they can be pierced with a straw. Take out with a skimmer, pack in cans or jars, cook sirup a little longer and pour over them.

For preserved pears select half a peck of nice fruit of medium size. Pare and cut in halves, remove the core and stem and drop the fruit as you peel it in cold water. For six pounds of pears allow four pounds of sugar and one quart of water. Place in a preserving kettle over the fire. As soon as it boils remove the scum, put in as many pears as will conveniently lie in the sirup without crowding each other and boil from 10 to 15 minutes or until a straw will pierce through them easily. Pour the hot fruit into jars, fill up with the sirup and seal tight.

A very rich green tomato preserve is made as follows: To one pound of fruit use three-quarters of a pound of granulated sugar. Allow the yellow rind, shaved thin, and the juice of one lemon to two pounds of fruit. Cut the tomatoes around in halves and then quarter the halves. Put the sugar on with just water enough to melt it, add the tomato and lemon and cook gently until the tomato is tender and transparent.

For Tanned Hands.

Hands which have become roughened and tanned during the summer outing may be greatly benefited by washing them two or three times a day in oatmeal water. Take some good fine oatmeal and boil it in water for an hour, strain and use the liquid for the hands. It should be made fresh every day in summer, as it soon becomes sour and smells unpleasant.

Bridal Flowers.

The bridal bouquet nowadays inclines to long, loose sprays arranged artistically, yet with a seeming carelessness, the flowers varying according to the season. White orchids and lilies of the valley are a favorite combination, and the cut shows an arrangement of white roses, lilies of the val-leaves and ferns tied with white ribbon. Later will come white chrysanthemum and jasmine and in midwinter white violets and gardenias.

Bridesmaids' bouquets admit any color, and pink roses and orchids are much liked.

The groom's boutonniere should employ the same kind of flowers as are in the bride's bouquet.

WINE OF CARDUI

A LITTLE DOES MUCH.

HOOPER, IOWA, Dec. 14. No tongue can tell what I have endured in the past ten years with my monthly sickness. While suffering untold agony, a friend called and recommended Wine of Cardui. I sent for a bottle, and Oh! what relief. After the first dose I began to feel better and have had no pain since.

MRS. GRACE LAMPHIRE.

Wine of Cardui not only cures but it acts AT ONCE. Here is a case of ten years' standing, and yet one single dose made the sufferer feel better, and stopped the pain. The Wine goes straight to the seat of the trouble. It acts directly upon the menstrual and genital organs. Its action is not violent, and it does not force a result. It simply gives Nature that little assistance that the sufferer's system lacks. A single disorder in the female organs spreads many disorders all over the body, and when the Wine cures the source, all the other ills vanish as a matter of course. A woman can be her own physician and cure herself at home. Local examinations are largely things of the past—the obnoxious custom is no longer necessary. Wine of Cardui is the only perfectly safe and sure vegetable Wine made to-day, for the cure of "female troubles."

Druggists sell Large Bottles for $1.00.

will have the largest majority this year that was ever given to a governor in Iowa. The returns are sufficiently complete to confirm the estimates of last night, giving his plurality at 60,000.

Trenton, N. J., Nov. 9.—The republicans carried New Jersey by about 20,000 plurality, although there was no direct vote on a state ticket. They will control the legislature in both branches.

Jackson, Miss., Nov. 9.—In a total vote of 60,000 A. H. Longino was elected governor by the democrats by a majority of 39,000 over Dr. Frewitt, the populist-republican fusion nominee.

Topska, Kas., Nov. 9.—Additional returns from elections of the county officials materially add to the first reports of republican gains. Moreover, the republicans elected six of the ten judges and the two state senators to fill vacancies.

New York, Nov. 9.—In Greater New York the average democratic plurality on county offices, as shown by the corrected returns is about 67,000. Official figures are still lacking on the vote in the state at large, but it is believed yesterday's figures of a net republican plurality of 75,000 are practically correct.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 9.—Additional returns received place the republican majority in the state at 7,000.

Philadelphia, Nov. 9.—James E. Barnett, head of the republican state ticket, was elected state treasurer by an estimated plurality of 100,433 yesterday. The parties' judicial nominees ran about 30,000 higher.

Baltimore, Nov. 9.—Returns from the close counties in Maryland continue to come in slow, but enough is now known to assure to the democrats the control of both branches of the general assembly. They have carried the lower house by such a decisive majority as to make it almost unanimous, and have the senate by a majority of three.

Median Billy Batten.

Columbus, O., Nov. 8.—Returns received this morning show that in fifty-seven counties Nash (Republican) has 34,393 over McLean (Democrat) and in thirty-one counties McLean has 34,035 over Nash. This gives Nash over McLean in the state, 50,864. It is no believed the official returns will make any change in these figures. The Jones vote will reach about 100,000.

DUST WHIRLS.

Interesting Phenomenon of Nature to Be Seen in Kansas.

A correspondent speaks of a curious dust whirl which he saw in Kansas. The whirlwind moved from the northwest to the southeast. It was in every way similar to an ordinary whirlwind, including the straight wind which accompanied it, except that, instead of one circular wind, five small whirlwinds circled around a common center. They ran south along an eight-foot osage orange hedge. Each eddy was simply a miniature whirlwind in form and velocity, whirling on its individual axis, and also on the common axis to the right. They were about fifteen feet high. They ran, a few rods and vanished. These whirls were undoubtedly due in part to the presence of the hedge, since similar whirls are met with in the rear of every obstacle, and in part to the hot, dry surface of the ground, since every mass of air that is made hotter than its neighbor rises and carries the slightest dust with it. These dust whirlwinds are common in India, especially during the dry season. Sometimes a slowly moving whirlwind, instead of appearing as a simple column, is composed of several distinct vortices, each one rotating on its axis as it revolves around in the whirling circle. A fan-shaped train of dust is attached to each separate vortex. This remarkable sight is said to give the idea of a fairy dance around a ring, and the motions are exactly imitated by the dancing dervishes of Turkey, one of whose holy exercises is to spin round and round like a top, singly or in company with others, and at the same time gyrating around in a general circle. Prof. R. W. Wood has imitated these phenomena artificially, using flat metal plates about a yard long and a foot wide, covered with sand. By heating the plates the air above the sand becomes warmed, and produces mirage effects, but, under the influence of greater heat, beautiful little whirlwinds of ascending hot air can be seen running about the surface, and carrying up the fine silica powder that is scattered upon the plate. When sal ammoniac is used instead of silica, dense clouds of white vapor quickly arise, and a perfect miniature tornado of dense smoke, about two yards high, is presented. This experiment shows exactly how eddies and whirls of dust are formed on the hot plains of Kansas.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

A Novel Birthday Party.

Will, Joe, Lum and Ed Hicks of Knoxville were all born on the 22nd of June, though in different years. Wm. Hicks is 33 years of age, Joe 36, Lum 31, and Edward 24. These young men are the sons of J. E. Hicks, a prosperous farmer, who resides about fifteen miles north of Knoxville. They celebrated their joint birthdays on the evening of June 22nd in an appropriate manner, by enjoying a delightful spread.

Is Cutting a Third Set of Teeth.

John Markwith, an octogenarian, living in Orange, N. J., who was born in 1817, it is alleged, is cutting a third set of teeth. Lately he has cut, according to reports, three molars on his lower jaw. He also asserts that his eyesight is improving and that he sees better than he did some years ago.
